Chapter 1 by Tailors <3

How do you write a story? Most start with a majestic and intriguing first line. This one, however, does not. It starts in the small town on Genevieve Falls. A beautiful tropical town. Although this town is beautiful in the travel brochures and postcards, once you are inside it's a whole other story. Lets begin...

"Good day ladies, welcome to Genevieve Falls Academy for different children." The cheery man in the top hat bowed and greeted the young woman and her teenage daughter. The young woman curtseyed and walked into the administration office. The teenage girl followed. "Here at Genevieve Falls Academy we take pride in teaching the children who are... unique..."

Oh. Did I mention this was only one year after a doctor accidentally let off a virus that messed with the DNA of humans, turning them into misbreeds? And that Genevieve prep was originally an insane asylum? I guess I didn't tell you a lot of things... anyway... let me continue...
